

Vision and Mission

Our Vision

To understand and remedy the University' legacy of slavery, segregation and discrimination within and outside of the University.

Our Mission Statement

Listen to and learn from community members who have lived and experienced those legacies.

Effectively communicate and raise understanding of this legacy within the University of Virginia as well as impacted communities.

Be a catalyst to generate commitment and actions that promote racial justice, equity, and reconciliation.